Scholarship Application to attend the National Jail Leadership Command Academy

This training scholarship will be awarded by the Alabama Jail Association to a deserving member in good standing. This scholarship will be awarded annually and will be rotated amongst counties.

The goal of the Alabama Jail Association and National Jail Leadership Command Academy (NJLCA) is to provide training for succession preparation, and to develop leadership skills for successful transitioning of mid-level managers into senior leadership positions within jails.

The Academy curriculum was developed by the Correctional Management Institute of Texas (CMIT) in coordination with American Jail Association (AJA), and in consultation with subject-matter experts, curriculum specialists, and educational professionals from across the country. Curriculum topics include:

- Best Practices
- Accountability
- Big-picture Thinking
- Finance and Budget
- Dealing with Organizational and Environmental Change
- Hiring and Keeping the Best
- Applied Ethical Leadership
- Collaborative Partnerships
- Essential Leadership Skills/Tools
- The Critical Key to Effective Leadership
- Organizational Communication

This current scholarship will be awarded to one accepted participant of the 28th session of the NJLCA to be held May 20-25, 2018 at the Correctional Management Institute of Texas, George J. Beto Criminal Justice Center at Sam Houston State University (SHSU) in Huntsville, Texas. The scholarship is for tuition only (which includes all class materials, lodging, and all meals/snacks – $1,960). Transportation between the George Bush Intercontinental Airport in Houston and the SHSU campus will be the recipients responsibility.

Please complete the following information, along with the NJLCA application, and return it to the Correctional Management Institute of Texas no later than February 23, 2018. The recipient will be chosen by the NJLCA Advisory Council.
